

The Cantare Community Youth Choir will present Rio Grande City's first ever Broadway Junior Musical!

“A warm invitation is extended to the entire Rio Grande Valley Community,” Melissa Reyna

WHO: The Cantare' Community Youth Choir

WHAT: Broadway production: “Once On This Island”

A production of Music Theatre International New York.

The story of a peasant girl who falls in love with a boy from a wealthy family. The Caribbean flavored story opens as villagers try to comfort a little girl during a terrible storm. A tale rich in classic lessons of social prejudice, betrayal, following dreams against parent's wishes, death and unrequited love.

WHEN: Saturday, April 8th @7:00 PM
Sunday, April 9th @2:00 and 7:00 PM

WHERE: Francisco G. Zarate Center for the Performing Arts
144 FM 3167 Rio Grande City, Texas

TICKETS: $5/ $8/ $10 by calling: 956-487-2709 or purchase at
Starr County Industrial Foundation
601 East Main Rio Grande City, Texas

About Cantare Community Youth Choir:

Cantare' is a nonprofit organization dedicated to providing the children of Starr County with opportunities for artistic and personal growth through music and theatre performance since 1991. For more information about Cantare's performances and programs, please contact Melissa Reyna.